Dear Reader,

The journal, that stands before you, as the first number of the new series Journal of Criminal Justice Issues, is a first Bosnian Journal in the field of Criminology, Criminal Justice and Security in English language. The Journal of Criminal Justice Issues intended to fill the present need for the dissemination of new information, ideas and methods, to both practitioners and academicians in the area of Criminal Justice and Security. The Journal of Criminal Justice Issues is a peer-reviewed open access journal focusing on the contemporary issues in Criminology, Criminal Justice, Victimology and Criminalistics.

It is the official journal of the Faculty of Criminal Justice and Security- University of Sarajevo. The Journal is concerned with all aspects of the criminal justice system in terms of their relationships to each other. This journal would act as a focal point for critical research, at a time when critical academic work is becoming increasingly subjugated to mainstream approaches. Journal would have, as a secondary aim, the opportunity of raising the profile of the Bosnian criminological perspectives among academics, practitioners, and activists. Articles that reflect the application of new disciplines or analytical methodologies to the problems of criminology, security study and criminal justice are of special interest. We would hope to see an increased interest in the Criminal Justice field through the publication of this journal.
